

You are not alone

- Liedtext -

Von ThraKhrom

You are feeling down
All's too much you think you will drown
Everything you try
Makes it worse; you want to go cry

Still you won't give up
Even if you have lost your luck
You can't sit and wait
'Till your problems start to lose weight

Now the time is right
To stand straight and pick up the fight
But you are too weak
So the prospects seem to be bleak

Stubborn as you are
You don't notice you won't get far
Struggling all day long
You start recalling this old song

You are not alone
In this world of so many fears
You have a friend or more
Who will help you out
Of the dumps if you ask them to
What are you waiting for?

You are not alone
In this world of so many tears
If you feel sad and blue
Someone will be there
To be tender and care for you
Ask's all you need to do

Echte Final Fantasy Fans werden sicher irgendwo eine Variante des Instrumentalstückes rumliegen haben. Singen müsst ihr dann allerdings selbst ^^
